#TerrorismHasNoReligion

Anjuman e AhleBayt strongly condemns this heinous crime in Belgium. It is an act of absolute barbarism and has no place in Islam a religion of peace. These horrific immoral acts of terrorism are contrary to our values, our learning, and they taint our religion which places utmost sanctity on human life.

These barbaric criminals and their supporters do not represent Islam and have no place in humanity. We strongly urge the authorities to swiftly apprehend these perpetrators, and supporters and punish them to the fullest extent.

Anjuman e AhleBayt offers deepest condolences to the Belgian government and people, particularly those who lost their loved ones.
